THIRD RACE—Rankin 1, Mag-hool 2, Maceo 3.

FOURTH RACE—Pageant 1, Mrs. Frank Foster 2, Sheriff Bell 3.

(Special to The Evening World.)
NEW ORLEANS, La., Dec. 26.—It was clear and cold to-day with a fast track and some interesting sport. Only the regular element spent the afternoon at the track, and the relative merits of Hermis and McChesney came in for considerable discussion during the afternoon.

The Eastern contingent laughed at the claims of Westerners that McChesney is good enough to beat Hermis. The New Yorkers point to the fact that Old Hutch, who ran McChesney to a half length in the Christmas Handicap, was only about good enough to win a race or two on the Metropolitan tracks last season.

CHICAGO UNIVERSITY MAY PLAY PRINCETON.

CHICAGO, Dec. 26.—Negotiations have been made between the University of Chicago and some member of the "Big Four" in the East for a football game next year, according to the admission of Manager Horace Butterworth, who stated that he had made a proposition to a member of the "Big Four," but did not expect to receive an answer until after New Year's.

ANY OF FIFTEEN GETS BIG TURF ESTATE.

Herbert McAlmont, a lad of fifteen, who has inherited nearly all the vast estate left by the late Col. Harry McAlmont, 238 race-horses now in his possession. His father, who was a member of the "Big Four," but did not expect to receive an answer until after New Year's.

JACK MUNROE MAY COME TO NEW YORK

Butte Miner Who Gave Jeffries Hard Fight Likely to Referee Bernstein-Muldoon Bout.

It is very likely that Jack Munroe, the big miner who earned a decision over Jim Jeffries in a four-round bout at Butte last Saturday night, will be in this city before the beginning of next week. Charley Horan, who manages Joe Bernstein, the little fighter, has wired the big fellow to come, offering to pay his expenses. Horan wants him to referee the wrestling match between Bernstein and "Young Muldoon," which is to be decided at Clarendon Hall on East Thirtieth street on Jan. 2. It is expected that an answer will be received from Munroe to-day. According to a despatch from Butte the big fellow will in all likelihood start East very soon.

BERNSTEIN is training for the bout at an east side gymnasium, while "Young Muldoon" is preparing for it at an uptown gymnasium. Both are already in fine shape for the bout, on which a side bet of $20 has been made by the principals. The money was put up yesterday in the hands of Dave Altman, Bernstein's manager. The services of Leo Pardo and Jimmie Franco, to train him for the bout and is confident that he will carry off the victory.

YOUNG JOCKEYS TAKE BACK SEATS.

Fashion of Big Bettors to Back Their Mounts Is Past Since Redfern's Arrival.

(Special to The Evening World.)
NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 26.—The apprentice jockeys who cut so much figure in the racing during the early days of the season have been compelled to take a back seat since Redfern, Buchanan and Winkfield commenced to ride regularly. Hicks, Robbins and Fuller were the winning riders during the first three weeks of the meeting, but with Hicks on the suspension list and Robbins in the hospital, the apprentice rider has ceased to be the fashion with big bettors.

Fuller is still riding and getting many desirable mounts with apprentice allowance, but whenever he hooks up with Redfern or Buchanan they invariably manage to ride rings around the youngster.

Redfern and Fuller had a fighting finish in the second race yesterday, and Redfern put it on Congressman Sullivan's little jockey in great shape. In fact, Redfern's riding was the feature of the day. He started among the other jockeys like good money does over green goods. The great little light-weight had a mount in every race. He rode three winners and landed two of his mounts second. The saddle slipped on Golden Rule, the only horse he finished placed with. This accident happened shortly after the start, and Redfern allowed the horse to gallop after his bid.

Altogether, yesterday was a great day for the star riders. Buchanan was a good second to Redfern with two winning mounts, and Winkfield scored on the only mount he had.

HELED DATE NOT LIKED BY QUAKERS.

Effort Will Be Made to Have American Rowing Association Change It.

The action of the American Rowing Association in selecting July 2 as the date of the first "American Henley" regatta is not pleasing to Philadelphia's amateur oarsmen. The dissatisfaction is due to the fact that the date is so close to that of the People's Regatta, which is scheduled for July 4.

CREWS RACED FOR $1,000.

Battle-ship Boys Have Lively Christmas Day at Trinidad.
PORT OF SPAIN, Trinidad, Dec. 26.—The big event of Christmas for the officers and men of the big battle-ship Alabama and Massachusetts was a boat race between rival crews for a purse of $1,000.

Tommy Sullivan, the hard-hitting feather-weight fighter, of South Brooklyn, who is in training at California, has been matched to exchange swings, and will meet in a twenty-round bout the West End Athletic Club, of St. Louis, Dec. 31.

Winnie O'Connor Would Give Up Rich French Contract if He Thought He Could Be Successful as a Boxer or a Song and Dance Artist.

Winnie O'Connor, who claims to have closed a three-year contract with prominent French turfmen, is a youth of many accomplishments. O'Connor has ridden a bicycle behind a pacing motor. He has donned the gloves and appeared publicly in the prize ring. He can sing and dance as well as many vaudeville performers. He handles an automobile with the celerity of a skilled chauffeur. He can shoot, bowl, swim and do half a dozen things in expert style.

He is a strange youth, this same Winnie O'Connor. Though he has a fortune ($100,000 for three years in the saddle), Winnie O'Connor would throw it all aside if he believed he could earn fame as a boxer or take a turn on the vaudeville stage. He believes nature intended him for any profession but that of a jockey.

Personally, O'Connor is pleasant in manner, though a bit self-conscious. His skill as a rider is unquestioned, but being discontented with his lot, he fails at times to make use of the vigor and judgment so necessary to the successful jockey.

O'Connor has a great future and a comfortable fortune in front of him if he will apply himself strictly to his profession during the next three years.

M'LEOD WINS WRESTLING CHAMPIONSHIP BY LUCK.

Injured Leg Causes Jenkins to Give Up in Match in Worcester.

Tom Jenkins's Christmas was a sad one. The title of champion catch-as-catch-can wrestler of America was lost by him and to-day, Dan McLeod, the big Canadian, holds it. The latter won it on a forfeit in the match at Worcester, Mass., but if McLeod is game he will give the man he defeated another chance.

In his bout with Jim Parr, the English champion, at Buffalo last week, Jenkins received an ugly kick on the shin of his left leg. A bruise resulted and the color from his trunk ran into it and blood poisoning threatened the big fellow. Although suffering intense pain last Monday night he went on in his bout with George Rothner in this city and wrestled a full hour.

RACING NOTES.

Battiste, another crack colored rider, has joined the ranks of jockeys at New Orleans. Battiste is from San Francisco and will ride for the firm of E. J. Arnold & Co. Burns, Corbura, Waldo and the other crack white jockeys riding on the coast, said to have formed a combination against Battiste and made it so warm for him that his employer thought it best to send the lad South.

MARTIN WILL RIDE FOR CROKER, TOO.

"Skeets" Martin, the American jockey who confines his riding to the English tracks during the summer months, will also ride for Richard Croker, the Master of Wantage, who has secured second call on the boy's services, and he says he expects fairly good luck with them, as in the ex-Tammanyite's stable are some very good thoroughbreds.

Mr. Croker will have about eight horses in active training. Two of these are in charge of John Huggins at Newmarket. The others will be trained at Mr. Croker's own place. He purchased this season two of the most highly tried two-year-olds in England, and great hopes are entertained of their success for which they are eligible.

The Croker stable has had heretofore considerable ill luck, probably due in some measure to poor methods of training. With Huggins handling two of the best of the string, the others in capable hands, and with Martin to pilot them, there is every prospect for a good season in 1903.

PAUL CREIGHTON, 12-1.

Was my best yesterday. My other selection will wear watching, and I strongly advise you to have a bet on it. Being a racing man, and acting as betting commissioner for several large racing stables now racing at New Orleans, places me in a position to furnish you with the best of inside stable information. During the New Orleans meeting I will furnish you with one or two good bets each day. My information is certainly a big winner up to date.

$5 Straight Won $638.

A Good Investment.
I will forfeit the sum of $1,000.00 to any charitable institution if the above is not a correct statement.

OLD WASHINGTON BALL FIELD SOLD.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 26.—The baseball grounds in this city which were occupied by the Washington team, better known as the Senators, during the many years the club was represented in the National League, have been sold for the purpose of cutting a street through them. The grounds were especially noted for one thing—they were used by the poorest ball teams that ever held membership in any league of importance.

Year after year the Senators cavorted over that diamond, and made the same winning each season. Old "Scrappy" Joyce one time threw a fit into local "fandom" by taking hold of the team in midsummer as the successor of Gus Schmelz, and actually brought the club up to seventh position in a twelve-club league. That was the one great achievement in the game this city has had since a team represented Washington in the American Association, National or American leagues.

Enough good players were developed on the grounds to make a first-class team, but the Wagner's penchant for selling them as so much pork always kept the club in the deepest going of the rack.

300 ATHLETES IN IRISH A. A. GAMES.

Meet at Madison Square Garden To-morrow Night Promises Best in Sport's History.

What promises the most successful set of athletic games ever held in Madison Square Garden is that to be held by the Greater New York Irish Athletic Association to-morrow night. Over three hundred entries have been received for the games. Nearly every prominent athlete in the country has entered the various events and close finishes are assured. One of the greatest athletes to compete will be Arthur Duffy, the champion 100-yard runner of the world. Duffy has not taken part in any games in this vicinity since he established his wonderful record of 9.35 seconds for 100 yards.

Aside from the appearance of Duffy and Jones in their specialties and the intercity and intercollegiate team relay races, the three-mile race will be the most spectacular event, for a better crowd of stayers it would be hard to find. The list includes Sanford, Carr, T. J. Kennedy, Joyce and Newton. Sanford, Carr and Kennedy are well known as three of the best distance runners in this vicinity, while Joyce is the present five-mile junior champion and Newton is the present steeplechase champion. It is expected that also Grant and Bowen, the two-mile intercollegiate and cross-country champions, will enter in their races, in which event the race will be still more exciting.

If form in the broad jump were to count for anything, Princeton, holder of the American record of 34 feet 7 1/2 inches, should win easily, but this is a different kind of event, for a better crowd of stayers it would be hard to find. The list includes Sanford, Carr, T. J. Kennedy, Joyce and Newton. Sanford, Carr and Kennedy are well known as three of the best distance runners in this vicinity, while Joyce is the present five-mile junior champion and Newton is the present steeplechase champion. Weeks; Treasurer, David L. Wilson, Jr.; Financial Secretary, William L. Miller; Club Secretary, Samuel H. Varaswyer; Captain, Thomas F. Cleary; First Lieutenant, M. A. Meyer; Second Lieutenant, Henry Wirth; Third Lieutenant, George Fullam.

Know Prevented Hurling Match.
Owing to the storm yesterday the hurling match which was scheduled at Equitable Park between the Wolfe Tones and the Kickahs did not take place. On Sunday, if good weather prevails, the two teams will play off their long delayed football game on the same field. There will also be a hurling contest before the football struggle.
